

MS ELA Summer Reading Rubric

Teachers will use the holistic Engagement Activity rubric and the conversion scale below to provide students with a score in the Progressive category on the Infinite Campus platform for Summer Reading . (4-100%; 3-87%; 2-71%; 1-50%)

Name _____

Date _____

ELA Teacher _____

Engagement Activity	4	3	2	1
Critic's Blog W1: Write arguments to support claims with clear reasons and relevant evidence.	Writes a critic's blog that supports a claim with thoughtful, clear reasons and relevant evidence.	Writes a critic's blog that supports a claim with clear reasons and relevant evidence.	Writes a critic's blog that supports a claim with evidence to support the claim.	Writes a critic's blog.
Soundtrack W2: Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.	Writes precise informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, analysis, and evaluation of relevant content for the songs and quotes selected for the soundtrack.	Writes informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content for the songs and quotes selected for the soundtrack.	Writes general informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information through the selection and organization of the content for the songs and quotes selected for the soundtrack.	Writes basic informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic for the songs and quotes selected for the soundtrack.
Storyboard W3: Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequences.	Writes narratives to retell a story to elaborate real or imagined experiences or events using a variety of effective techniques, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequences on a storyboard.	Writes narratives to retell a story to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective techniques, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequences on a storyboard.	Writes narratives to recount/retell real or imagined experiences or events using relevant descriptive details and event sequences on a storyboard.	Writes narratives to recount/retell real or imagined experiences or events on a storyboard.

Grade/Score: _____

Comments: